Management
Methods, Inc.

Press Release – For Immediate Release 4/22/09

Decatur, AL – Davis Woodruff, PE, CMC, the founder and President of Management Methods, Inc. a management consulting firm based in Decatur, AL has been recognized as a technical expert to review energy management and process management papers for an international scientific publication's peer review process.

As a recognized expert in the process management and energy management fields, Davis M. Woodruff, PE, CMC, has been invited to review relative technical manuscripts for Energy, a publication of Elsevier. As the world's leading publisher of science and health information, Elsevier serves more than 30 million scientists, students, and health and information professionals worldwide.

The peer review process is considered the "gold standard" for technical and health related publications and only recognized experts in the field are included in the review process. Mr. Woodruff has reviewed papers previously for other publications, but the selection by Elsevier is significant in the field according to Woodruff. "I am very pleased to be recognized as an expert in the field of energy management and conservation, especially by an organization like Elsevier who has been a world leader in the technical arena for over 125 years," Mr. Woodruff said.

Management Methods, Inc. is a management consulting firm founded by Davis Woodruff in 1984 and specializes in showing companies how to be the low cost, high quality, environmentally responsible leader in their industry. Davis M. Woodruff is a certified management consultant (CMC), professional engineer (PE), speaker and author. He is the author of Taking Care of the Basics, 101 Success Factors for Managers, an e-book, Managing Green to Save $$Green$$: An energy management process that works, and over three dozen internationally published articles including articles in the prestigious Encyclopedia of Chemical Engineering. He has served clients in 35 states and on 3 continents in the past 25 years.
